WHY DO WE NEED YOU?

Our Series is designed for the enjoyment of our entire community and we want to make attending our events as affordable as possible.

Ticket sales and grants cannot completely cover the cost of underwriting our events, and in fact cover only about one-third of the total cost. Monetary gifts from community-minded businesses and generous individuals make these programs possible.

The arts are an essential element of education, just like reading, writing and arithmetic...music, dance, painting and theater are all keys that unlock profound human understanding and accomplishment.

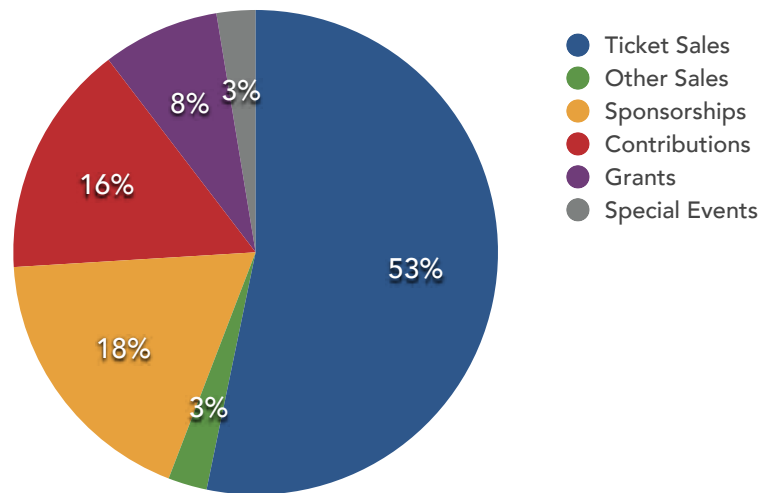

William Bennett, Former US Secretary of Education

Arts enable us to find ourselves and lose ourselves at the same time.

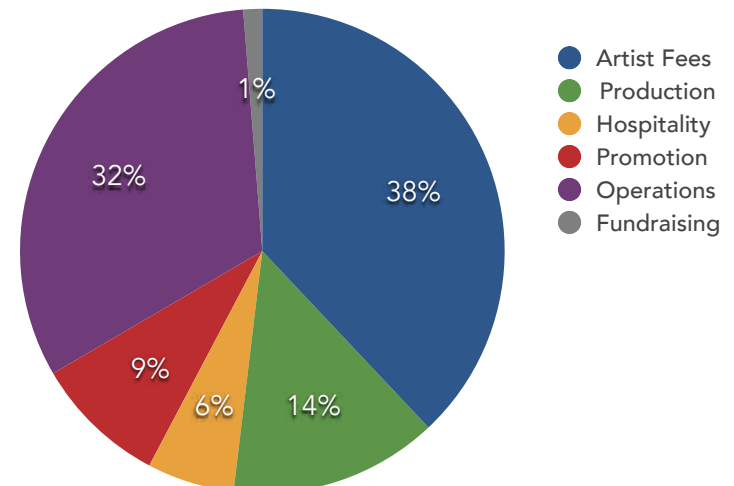

Thomas Merton

The Bitterroot Performing Arts Council strives to make life in the Bitterroot Valley pleasantly social, dramatically richer and more culturally stimulating by presenting top-tier performers and Grammy-winning musicians from around the globe.

A SOUND INVESTMENT

What is there that can transcend deep difference and stubborn divisions? The arts. They have a wonderful universality. Art has the potential to unify. It can speak in many languages without a translator. The arts do not discriminate. The arts can lift us up.

Former Texas Congresswoman Barbara Jordan

By promoting vibrancy in the arts, we make the Bitterroot Valley a more desirable place to work, live and visit—and that’s important for all the businesses and people residing here.

LIFELONG LEARNING

The arts present the opportunity for lifelong learning for people of all ages. We work diligently with our presenting artists to provide outreach opportunities for our school children and adults. Our valley schools are invited to attend workshops and school day performances at no or very reduced cost so that our children are exposed to world-class arts.

Finally, the arts are about joy. They are about the experience of being moved, of having one’s life enriched, of discovering our capacity to feel. If that was all they did, they would warrant a generous place at our table.

Elliot W. Eisner, Stanford University,
Essay from The Los Angeles Times

Without the Bitterroot Performing Arts Series, our community would not have the cultural depth and vitality we enjoy now.
